Obituary

Mrs. Ida Jensen was born near Viborg April 13th, 1886, was united in marriage to Carl C. Jensen March 28, 1907, to this union were born two little girls, Gladys and Viola, who with their father are left to mourn the loss of one who so tenderly cared for them in their infant days.

Mrs. Jensen lived a quiet life, and was one of whom could be said she had no enemies, but numbered her friends by her acquaintances. After a lingering illness she passed away at 4:30 p. m., August 25, 1915.

The following Friday a large concourse of friends gathered at the new Lutheran church to pay their last respect.

She was laid to rest in the M. E. cemetery to await the life giver in the resurrection morning.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, two little girls, father and mother and four sisters.

Card Of Thanks.

We acknowledge with thanks the sympathy shown us during the illness, death and burial of a dear wife, mother, daughter and sister. We thank our friends of the new Lutheran church, who so willingly opened their church for us and decorated it so beautifully which surely was appreciated by us all.
