Marjorie C. Jensen

Marjorie C. (Friman) Jensen was born April 8, 1922, at Hurley, South Dakota to Floyd and Alice (Pelmulder) Friman. She died Thursday morning, August 3, 2000 at the Sioux Valley Hospital in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Marjorie grew up in Hurley where she graduated from high school in 1941. On August 22, 1942 she married Richard P. Jensen at Ft. Warden, Washington. Following their marriage the Jensens made their home in Sioux Falls. Richard preceded her in death on June 18, 1958.

Marjorie worked at John Morrell & Company for 28 years retiring in 1979. She was a member of Asbury United Methodist Church. She loved making afghans, stocking caps, and mittens for family members. Marjorie enjoyed Morrell reunion events and especially enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors include two sons: Robert Jensen and his wife, Barbara of Las Vegas, Nevada and Darol Jensen and his wife, Wanda of Sioux Falls, SD; one daughter, Carol Grotewold and her husband, Douglas of Las Vegas, Nevada; seven grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; and three sisters: Iona Bondesen of Hurley, SD; Lucille Lineback of Viborg, SD; and Darlene Hagen and her husband, Stanley of Parker, SD; and a special friend, Garry Tokheim of Sioux Falls, SD. Marjorie was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and one sister, Joyce Lineback.

Funeral services were held Monday, August 7, 2000, at the Asbury United Methodist Church with burial at the Hurley Cemetery.
