Mrs. James P. Christensen, a resident of the Twin Brooks area since 1903, died Friday, Nov. 29, at the St. Bernard Hospital at the age of 80 years. For nearly three years Mrs. Christensen had been bedridden at her home following a series of strokes.

Johanna Madsen Christensen was born May 6, 1882, the daughter of Jorgen and Johanna Madsen at Viborg, S. Dak. She attended the public school at that place and lived there until her marriage.

On December 30, 1903, she married James P. Christensen at Viborg and at that time they came to Twin Brooks township where they farmed.

During Mrs. Christensen's illness she was cheerful and uncomplaining and remained thoughtful of the welfare of others.

Her husband preceded her in death. Survivors are her son Norman and daughter Luella at home; James P., a son who lives in Long Beach, Calif., and daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Edna) Wartenbee, Summit; Mrs. Ray (Sophie) Chislett, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Ervin (Arlys) Bohn, Twin Brooks; and Mrs. Harley (Mavis) Skalland, Vallejo, Calif.

Two sisters, Mrs. Stephan Nelson, Viborg, and Mrs. Carrie Buckstead, Cudahy, Wis., and one brother, J. Chris Madsen, New Underwood, S. Dak., also survive.

Other survivors are 11 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Dec. 3rd, from the Emanuel Funeral Home in Milbank. Interment was in the Milbank cemetery.
