Passed Away at Hospital in Sioux Falls Monday, February 5th

FUNERAL HELD FROM M. E. CHURCH

Leaves One Daughter and Several Step-Children One Adopted Son

Lars Larson Storm was born at Helves, Fyn, Denmark, on September 3rd, 1860, and came to America in April, 1886. He was received as a member of the Methodist church of this place in February, 1897 by Rev. Andrew Erickson.

In 1892 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Nels Peterson, who died in February, 1919.

Mr. Larson has four surviving sisters: Mrs. J. P. Lund, Viborg S. D.; Mrs. C. Jorgenson, Denmark; Mrs. J. M. Hansen, Spring Valley; and Mrs. J. Christensen, Beresford S. D., and also one daughter, Mrs. Chris O. Rasmussen, one adopted son, Fred Larson, and seven stepchildren: L. P. Peterson, Knud Peterson, J. L. Peterson, Mrs. Ole Nelson, Mrs. Harvey Nelson, Mrs. Robert Larson, and Mrs. Fred Willis.

Mr. Larson's health began to fail about a year ago, and since last July he has been quite sick.

Mr. Larson was one of the quiet in the land and in the church too, but he witnessed a good profession of his faith and hope, both in his home with his daughter, Mrs. Chris O. Rasmussen, and in the hospital in Sioux Falls where he died Monday morning, February 5th, 1923. He was laid to rest on Wednesday, February 7th, 1923, from the Methodist church in the Rose Hill Cemetery, services having been conducted in the home and at the church by his pastor, Rev. J. Sanaker, a very large number of relatives, friends and neighbors attending the services in both places.
