

OSTROOT, Marie (Jurisdal)

November 2, 1891

Minneapolis, Minnesota

died: mid-December of 1978

Viborg

Viborg Enterprise - December 21, 1978

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SATURDAY FOR MARIE OSTROOT

Funeral services for Mrs. George Ostroot were held on Saturday, Dec. 16, 1978, at the Bethany Lutheran Church in Viborg, S. D. Pastor Virgil White officiated, and the organist was Mrs. James Oakland. Pastor White sang "How Great Thou Art" and the congregation sang "Amazing Grace". Pallbearers were: Keith Keller, Norman Jensen, Roger Thomas, Robert Ward, Gerald Morrison, and Paul Kury. Interment was in Rosehill Cemetery.

Marie Jurisdal, daughter of Nels and Torbord Jurisdal, was born November 2, 1891, in Minneapolis, Minn. She grew up in Cottonwood, Minn., and graduated from the Cottonwood High School and attended St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., where she received a degree in music.

She was married to George Ostroot on June 30, 1914, in Cottonwood.

Since 1936 they have resided in Viborg where they have owned and published the Viborg Enterprise.

Survivors are her husband, George of Viborg; four sons, Del of Clearwater, Fla., George, Jr. of Glendale, Mo., Norman of Viborg, and Edward of South Gate, Calif.; six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Blessed be her memory to all of you.