

MADSEN, Agnes (Knudsen)

February 12, 1893

near Daneville

March 19, 1976

Rapid City, South Dakota

Viborg Enterprise - April 1, 1976

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FOR AGNES MADSEN

Funeral services for Agnes Madsen, 83, who passed away Friday, March 19, in a Rapid City hospital, were held Tuesday, March 23, in the New Underwood Congregational Church with the Rev. C. T. Gustafson officiating. Mr. Warren Wagner was organist. Rev. Gustafson sang "Beyond The Sunset" and "How Great Thou Art". Pallbearers were Steven Dodson, Russell J. Madsen, Delvine Cleveringa, Ronald Madsen, Jon Madsen and Bill Heil. Burial was in New Underwood Cemetery under the direction of Behrens Mortuary.

Agnes Madsen was born at Viborg, S. D., on Feb. 12, 1893, to Erik and Johanna Knudsen.

She married J. C. "Chris" Madsen May 7, 1913. They moved to New Underwood in 1917. Mrs. Madsen was a member of the Congregational Church, and the American Legion Auxiliary of New Underwood.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and two brothers.

Survivors include two sons, Eugene of New Underwood, S. D. and Russell of Citrus Heights, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Paul (Carol) Koenig of Oakland, Cal., two sisters, Eleanora Jensen of Tyler, Minn. and Mrs. Irving (Elsie) Larson of Los Angeles, Calif.; a brother, Walter O. Knudsen of Viborg; seven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

A memorial has been established to the New Underwood Congregational Church.