Patricia Panagos

Patricia Louise (Sinning) Panagos was born in Canton, South Dakota on February 8, 1942. She was the daughter of Harry F. and Hattie (Henrichs) Sinning. She grew up in Canton where she attended Canton Public School and graduated from Canton High School in 1960. She attended Springfield State Teachers College and then taught school at Canton and at Hudson.

Patt was married to Mark Moser and they lived in Sioux City, Iowa. Two daughters were born to this union. Later she was married to Dan Panagos. They lived in Sioux Falls and moved to California where they lived for ten years. Because of her husbands illness she returned to South Dakota. She lived in Viborg and was employed at the grocery store. Due to a fall and subsequent back injury she retired to Parker where she lived in an apartment and later moved to the assisted living center. She was a resident of Tieszen Memorial Nursing Home in Marion the past weeks.

Patt loved to crochet and created countless crosses, giving to her family, friends and missionaries, who gave them to people in other counties.

She was preceded in death by her father on July 7, 1972; her mother on August 1, 1979 and one brother, Fommo (Jens) Sinning.

Patt died suddenly on arrival at Avera McKennan Hospital in Sioux Falls late Wednesday evening, September 28, 2005. She had attained the age of 63 years, seven months and 20 days.

Grateful for having shared her life are her husband, Dan Panagos of Sioux Falls, two daughters, Melody (John) Nolan of Norco, California and Stephanie (Brian) Evans of Realto, California; three grandchildren; Amanda, Brianne and Jessie; one sister, Ann Mullinix of Beresford and a very special friend, Bev Brenner of Parker.

Services were held Monday, October 3, 2005, at Dindot-Klusmann Chapel in Lennox, SD, with Pastor Joan Jacobus officiating. Delores Bunger and Brenda Sinning provided the special music. Casketbearers were Tarz Mullinex, Tracey Mullinex, Torrey Mullinex, Aaron Mullinex, Al Mullinex and Larry Roan. Interment was at Lennox Cemetery, Lennox, SD.
