

JORGENSEN, Glen Donald

November 5, 1942
Viborg
April 18, 2008
Sioux Falls

Viborg Enterprise
April 24, 2008

Glen Jorgensen

Hurley. Glen D. Jorgensen, 65, died Friday, April 18, 2008 at Sanford Medical Center, Sioux Falls. Funeral services were held at 10:30am Tuesday, April 22, 2008 at Bethany Lutheran Church, Hurley with burial at the Hurley Cemetery. Visitation will begin at 4:00 pm Monday at the church with a Prayer Service to be said at 7:00 pm. Hofmeister-Jones Funeral Chapel, Hurley in charge of arrangements. Please direct condolences to a memorial fund in lieu of flowers.

Glen Donald Jorgensen was born on November 5, 1942 at Viborg, SD to Donald and Vivian (Christensen) Jorgensen. After graduating from Hurley High School in 1961 he was involved in trucking with his brothers, Keith and Duane, as Jorgensen Bros. Trucking in Hurley. After trucking for 50 years he retired in 2007. On December 30, 1982 he was united in marriage to Patricia Koehler at Hurley. Glen enjoyed his yearly fishing trips to Canada, deer and elk hunting in the Black Hills, watching the Outdoors Channel and westerns, especially Gunsmoke. He was a great story teller, which brought smiles and laughter to his family and friends.

Grateful for having shared his life are his wife Pat; sons Tony (Cindy) Ciampa, Hurley, Tim (Jennifer) Koehler, Sioux Falls, and Travis "TJ" Jorgensen, Rapid City; a daughter, Tina Danielsen, Viborg; 2 brothers, Keith (Jeanne) and Duane (Betty), all of Hurley; and 5 grandchildren, Kaylee Ciampa, Charles Koehler, Ethan Koehler, Nathan Ciampa, and Kevin Danielsen. He was preceded in death by his parents and a son Todd Koehler. For obituary and online registry, please visit www.hofmeister-jones.com.