OBITUARY

FRANK E. MORRISON

Frank E. Morrison, 70, of 513 W. 10th St., Port Angeles, Wash., died Friday after a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held at the Harper Funeral Home in Port Angeles on Wednesday at 10 a.m. with the Rev. Mackenzie Murray officiating. Burial was in Mt. Angeles Cemetery.

Mr. Morrison was born June 12, 1890, in Viborg, S. Dak. He lived many years in Viborg where he was town marshal over a long period of time. He married Bessie LeClere at Viborg June 6, 1917. Following the marriage he served in the U. S. Navy during World War I.

In 1950 the family moved to Seattle where Mr. Morrison was employed as a machinist at the Boeing plant until his retirement in 1956. For a year after his retirement the family lived in Sequim prior to coming to Port Angeles.

Mr. Morrison was a member of American Legion University Post No. 11, Seattle, and IOOF Lodge No. 229 of Viborg.

Included among survivors are his wife, Mrs. Bessie Morrison, Port Angeles; three daughters, Mrs. Burnetta Smith, Salem, Ore., Mrs. LaVonne Ford, Warren, Ohio, and Mrs. LaFaye Gibson, Portland, and twelve grandchildren.
