Marlene Christensen was organist and soloist was Arden Flyger. Pallbearers were Lester Gors, Rexwell Christopherson, Charles Larsen, Ralph Johansen, Dean Erickson and Maurice Christensen. Ushers were H. A. Mateer and Ejner Andersen. Lovina was laid to rest in the Hurley Cemetery.

Lovina Larson, 83, daughter of James and Lelia Hansen, was born March 2, 1906, at Ida Grove, Iowa. She passed away Monday, July 24, 1989, at Pioneer Memorial Home, Viborg, SD.

On February 11, 1929, she was united in marriage to Marius Larson. To this union four sons were born. Marius and Lovina farmed in the Hurley area and moved to their present farm south of Davis, SD, 45 years ago.

Lovina enjoyed her farm life. She loved her garden, flowers and yard. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother.

She is survived by her husband, Marius; four sons, Kenneth and his wife, Jeanne, Hurley, SD, Lyle and his wife, Doris, Yankton, SD, Merton, Sacramento, CA, and Burdette and his wife, Ilse, Milwaukee, WI; three granddaughters, Tamara Mueller and Kellie Larson, Yankton, and Amy Larson, Hurley; two sisters, Esther Severt, Parker, SD, and Bernice Hansen, Coffeyville, KS; and three brothers, James Hansen and Zenith Hansen, both of Sioux Falls, and Charles Hansen of Yankton.

Preceding her in death were her parents, two sisters, Doris and Edith, a brother, Roy, and one granddaughter.
