OBITUARY

Vera Jacobsen was born September 20, 1893 to Hans Peter and Annie Marie Sorenson in Swan Lake Township, Turner County, South Dakota. She spent her childhood on a farm northwest of Viborg.

On January 13, 1915, she was married to Clarence Georgeson. They farmed near Center Point for 18 years and moved to Hurley in 1933. Clarence passed away in 1935.

In 1943 Vera married Lewis Jacobsen and they farmed near Beresford for 16 years. Lewis passed away in 1959. Vera then moved back to Center Point, and had also spent time on her daughter and son-in-law's farm near Irene, and had spent winters with her children in California. She lived in an apartment in Viborg for a time and then went to Sunset Manor at Irene for the last years. Vera passed away Saturday evening at the Pioneer Memorial Hospital. She was 87 years of age. She was a member of the Viborg Baptist Church and had been baptized November 19, 1972. She was preceded in passing by her parents and four brothers. She is survived by her four children Leslie Georgeson, Torrance, California; Harlan Georgeson, Wilmington, California; Ardell, Mrs. Lawrence Hansen, Mission Hill, S. Dak.; and Lois, Mrs. Elvin Lee, Irene, S. Dak.; seven grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren, two great, great, grandchildren; one brother, Leonard Sorenson, Viborg, S. Dak.; one sister, Netta, Mrs. Harry Peterson, Viborg, S. Dak.; four stepchildren, Curtis Jacobsen, St. Paul, Minnesota; Agnes Marshal, Des Moines, Iowa; Alfreda Lien, Volin, S. Dak.; Gladys Larsen, Irene, S. Dak.; and other relatives and friends.

Blessed be her memory.
