Dave Miller, Resident 20 Years, Dies

5-14-65

Dave Miller, a retired carpenter who has been a Canon City resident for 20 years, died in his home at 910 South Fourth Street, about 9:30 a.m. Thursday. He had been in failing health for several years, becoming serious the past four weeks. He was 72.

Graveside services will be held in the Hillside Cemetery, Hillside, at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Elder James Burford officiating. Arrangements are being handled by Holt-Wilson Funeral Directors.

Mr. Miller was born on April 5, 1893 in Viborg, S. D., the son of Nels Miller and Lisa Sorenson Miller. He moved to Canon City in Oct. 1944 from Viborg.

On Dec. 9, 1929, Mr. Miller was married to Jean Boyd in Sterling, Colo. She survives and lives in the family home. He was of the Protestant faith and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, is a daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Paulsen of Leadville; four grandchildren; two brothers, Sam Miller of Watertown, S. D., and John Miller of Viborg; and a niece, Mrs. Ruth Miller of Canon City.
