FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FOR ZOLA P. JORGENSEN

The funeral for Zola P. Jorgensen was held Friday, December 11 at 10:30 a.m. at the Harmony Presbyterian Church with Rev. Ronald Hawkins officiating.

Mrs. Russell Flyger was organist and Arden Flyger was soloist.

Karla Parsons was in charge of the Register Book.

Pallbearers were Duane Sherard, Darrell Sherard, Maurice Jorgensen, Clifford Sherard, Jerry Olson, and Doug Olson.

Burial was at the Hurley Cemetery.

Zola P. Jorgensen, daughter of Jessie and James Sherard was born May 1, 1902, near Hurley, S. Dak.

After attending Southern State Normal School at Springfield, she taught school for several years. Later she became Deputy Co. Supt. of Schools until her marriage June 25, 1927 to Clifford Jorgensen.

They farmed in the Turkey Ridge area until 1937 when they moved to Anaconda, Montana. In 1945 they returned to S. Dak. and farmed south of Parker until 1964 at which time they retired and moved to Hurley.

Zola was a member of the Harmony Presbyterian Church. Until her health failed she was active in the church work

She always made friends and relatives welcome by offering a cup of coffee and home baked goodies along with old fashioned visiting.

Zola passed away at the Sacred Heart Hospital on Dec. 8, 1981 at the age of 79 years. She was laid to rest in the Hurley Cemetery on Dec. 11, 1981.

Survivors include her husband Clifford; a brother W. Clyde Sherard and his wife Joy; two sisters Marion Fager and her husband Duard and Jessie B. Sanborn; two sisters-in-law Mary A. Sherard and Anna Jones, many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers Claude and Merritt and two sisters Zora and Erma.

CARD OF THANKS

A sincere thanks is extended to friends and relatives for their kind expressions of sympathy during this time of our sorrow. A special thanks to the ladies of the church who prepared and served the delicious dinner.

May God Bless you all.
