OBITUARY

Carl H. Holsether was born May 25, 1905, in Yankton County to Mikkel and Clara (Sivertson) Holsether, and died Wednesday, Oct. 19, 1983 at Sacred Heart Hospital. He grew up in the Irene-Viborg community and attended Lowell District School.

He farmed the family farm. After his marriage to Elsie B. Sivertson on Nov. 12, 1930, at Volin Lutheran Church parsonage by the Rev. P.M. Fjaere, the couple moved to a farm in the area where they remained until 1955. While he was living at Center Point, he was employed at the South Dakota Human Services Center for 18 years, retiring in 1972.

During his semi-retirement, he worked at M-Tron for three years.

He was a member of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, Moose Lodge and Sons of Norway.

Survivors are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Ordell (Carol) Munkvold, Wasta, and Mrs. Tom (Cheryl) Heirigs, Manhattan, Kan.; a son, Charles, Wall; seven grandchildren, Tareasa, Tammara, Ann-Jolene and Angela Holsether; Michael and Denise Munkvold; and Matthew Heirigs; one brother, Edwin Holsether, Viborg; a sister, Mrs. Even (Anna) Morken, Irene; and an aunt, Mrs. Josephine Bunker, Fallbrook, California.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, Carl and Sanford in infancy, and Melvin.
