Sherry Wojcicki

Sherry Wojcicki, 68, died early Sunday morning, September 22, 2002, at her home after a long illness. She was the wife of Edmund J. Wojcicki.

Sherry was born in Viborg, SD, on August 1, 1934. She was the daughter of the late Raymond and Tillie Frederickson. She grew up and attended school in Viborg, SD, and was a graduate of Viborg High School.

A long time Amesbury, MA resident, Sherry was the executive secretary for the Amesbury Public Library for 26 years. She then worked at Amesbury Middle School as a teacher's aid for 5 years.

A very active member of the First United Methodist Church in Amesbury, Sherry taught Sunday school, served on many committees and held many positions at the United Methodist Church. She mostly enjoyed being a homemaker and adored her four grandchildren.

In addition to her husband Eddie, she is survived by a daughter and son-in-law Dr. Cynthia Wojcicki and Dr. T. Frank Marchell of Hampden Falls, NH; a son and daughter-in-law, Mark and Patricia Wojcicki of Amesbury, MA; two brothers Darrell Frederickson of Viborg, SD, and Donley Frederickson of Lyons, SD; four grandchildren Joseph and Abigail Marchell, and Mae and Ava Wojcicki; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, September 25th, 2002, at United Methodist Church in Amesbury, MA. Burial will be at Holland Cemetery rural Centerville, SD.
