

BUCKSTEAD, Ardath (Heddinger) Taylor

March 9, 1900

Des Moines, Iowa

died: late August of 1970

Viborg Enterprise - September 3, 1970

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FRIDAY FOR MRS. L. J. BUCKSTEAD

Funeral services for Mrs. Lawrence Buckstead were held Friday afternoon from the First Baptist Church with Rev. Kenneth Peterson officiating. Organist was Mrs. Oliver Anderson and soloist was Mrs. Donald Mark. Pallbearers were, Milo Hansen, Carl Hansen, Ralph Long, Maurice Long, James Mellegaard and LuVerne Christensen. Interment was in Bethania Cemetery.

Ardath Heddinger was born to Joe and Ethel Heddinger on March 9, 1900, in Des Moines, Ia. Her family moved to Carlyle, S. D., early in her childhood. She was united in marriage to Joy Taylor and to this union three children were born.

She was later united in marriage to Lawrence Buckstead in April, 1924, in Parker, S. D., and to this union three children were born.

They spent their entire life in the Hurley-Viborg area where she was active in many community organizations.

Mrs. Buckstead was preceded in death by her parents and one grandson, Robert.

She is survived by her husband; six children: Melvin Taylor, Verle Taylor, Wilma (Taylor) Schmidt, Kenneth, Richard and Dennis Buckstead; by 15 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and many other relatives and friends.