

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Lisa Jones of Fort Madison, Kathy Macy of Sterling, Va., and Donna McMillan of Silver Spring, Md.; and three grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother and one sister.

Friends may call after noon today, with the family receiving friends from 7 to 8 p.m. at Barr Memorial Chapel in Fort Madison.

The funeral for Rev. McMillan will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at Barr Memorial Chapel, with the Rev. Frank P. Fagerburg officiating. Burial will be in Long Creek Cemetery near Danville.

McMILLAN TO VIBORG AND TURKEY VALLEY

Rev. Gordon McMillan is now the pastor at Viborg and Turkey Valley. The McMillans moved in July from South Sioux Baptist Church to Viborg where the parsonage for the two churches is located.

Mr. McMillan is a Canadian by birth and received his U. S. citizenship on December 10, 1957. He attended McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada; Central Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, and has done some work at Sioux Falls College. At present he is serving as president of Southeastern Baptist Association.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McMillan are musical. Mrs. McMillan is a graduate of the University of Dubuque and has done post-graduate work at the University in both voice and piano. She has studied also in New York and Philadelphia. She taught high school music in Malvern, Iowa, before her marriage.

Prior to serving in Sioux Falls, Mr. McMillan was pastor in Malvern, Iowa; Kansas City, Kansas, and Northern Canada.

There are three little girls in the McMillan home, Donna Marie, 6, Kathy Sue, 4, and Alicia Lynn, 3.

Following the first service in the parish, a welcoming dinner was held in honor of the McMillans. Deacon Johnson extended the welcome on behalf of the Deacons; Dr. Carlos Kemper represented the Trustees, Richard Skola gave the welcome for the young people.

Viborg, Gordon C. McMillan, pastor. Men of the church have been helping repoint the church. The building is about forty years old and has needed some repair work. Before the summer is over a good share of the church will be completed at a cost of about $1,500.00. The Women's Mission Society enjoyed a picnic in Beresford and visited the Old People's Home and the Children's Home. They have rebuilt the kitchen at Viborg, installed a water system and new sinks, painted the room and put new tile on the floor. Young people have been plastering and painting three rooms of the basement. The women's society bought new drapes for the rooms. Along with their work, the young people enjoyed swimming and picnicking at Beresford. Three girls from the church are attending Sioux Falls College as freshmen. Terry Nelson from the church is a pre-ministerial student at SFC. Carlos Kemper is a pre-med student at Vermillion. A choir made up of high school and college students was faithful all summer. Dr. Carlos Kemper is the director. Following camping, a Camp Sunday was observed when the campers had charge of the service and each related his finest experience at camp.

N-1958

M-1974

VIBORG

Mrs. Niels Ebbeson, reporter

We are still carrying on our church services without a pastor . . . Mr. Peter J. Peterson from our town, has been filling our pulpit . . . Rev. Gordon McMillan of Fort Madison, Iowa, has accepted a call to our church and plans to come in June . . . On December a pot luck dinner was served following the church service, to celebrate our official Centennial Anniversary which was December 31 . . . Our church women go in groups each week to the nursing home to entertain or be of service in any way they can.

Nov. 1958