MUNKVOLD, Wanda (Hoffman)

April 7, 1923
Burnette, Indiana
died: late July of 2007

Viborg Enterprise
August 2, 2007

Wanda Munkvold was born April 7, 1923 at Burnette, Ind. Her parents were Harry and Gladys (Marquis) Hoffman.

Wanda graduated from high school in Clinton, Ind. and then worked at a department store in Indianapolis. She met her future husband, Harold, in Indianapolis and they were married on August 5, 1944, after only three dates. For the next 26 years they traveled the world with Harold's Air Force career. They retired in 1969 and moved to Easton, KS. In 1973, they moved to a small farm west of Irene, SD. They moved to Viborg in 1992 where they build a new home. Harold passed away on July 30, 2005. After Harold's death, Wanda lived at the Pioneer Villa. Wanda loved to travel with Harold and her extended family and she enjoyed planting and growing flowers, and spoiling her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two sisters Mary Wilhelm and Irene Seibert, one brother, Bob Hoffman, and one grandson, Greg Munkvold.

Wanda is survived by one son, Hal (Julia) of Eugene, OR; two daughters, Pam (Vernon) Munkvold of Viborg and Debby (John) Stanton of Onawa, IA; five grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.