BAK, Edna H. (Madsen)

January 13, 1913
rural Irene
January 19, 1996
Yankton

Viborg Enterprise
February 1, 1996

Edna Bak

Edna H. Bak, 83, of Irene, passed away Friday, January 19, 1996 at Sacred Heart Hospital in Yankton, SD.

Edna Madsen was born January 13, 1913 Northwest of Irene, SD to Mads and Clara (Jensen) Madsen.

She attended Lowell school and was baptized and confirmed at Spring Valley Church.

She married Oliver Bak on August 5, 1934 at Spring Valley Church. She and Oliver owned and operated the Co-op and Standard stations in Irene for many years, and Edna did all the bookkeeping for the business until 1983.

She belonged to Calvary Lutheran Church, was an honorary member of the Calvary ALCW and an active member of the Irene Senior Citizens.

Survivors include her husband Oliver, one son Erlin and his wife Carol of Irene, 2 daughters, Leone and her husband Bruce Brockmueller of Irene, and Kathleen and her husband Larry Jorenby of Brookings; grandchildren: Teresa and husband Dan Rempp of Irene, Douglas and wife Janet of Irene, Karmen Brockmueller of Chancellor, Mark Brockmueller of Irene and Aaron Jorenby of Brookings; great-grandchildren: Christopher and Nicholas Rempp of Irene, Linda and Derek Bak of Irene; a foster brother: Allen Simonsen and wife Margie of Viborg.

Preceding her in death were one infant son, her parents and four brothers and one sister.

Funeral services were held Monday, January 22, 1996 at Calvary Lutheran Church in Irene, SD with burial in Hillcrest Cemetery, Irene, SD.