LAST RITES HELD FOR C. O. HATTERVIG WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15

Mr. C. O. Hattervig passed away suddenly last Saturday morning at his home, two and one-half miles northeast of town. He was apparently in his usual good health so his death was very unexpected. In another month, Mr. Hattervig would have been 80 years old. He was born on the farm on which he died and was a real pioneer of this community. Had Mr. Hattervig lived three more days, he and Mrs. Hattervig would have been able to observe their Golden Wedding. Funeral services were held at the Hooker Lutheran Church on Wednesday afternoon. Obituary next week.

With sorrow in our hearts, we wish to take this means to express our sincere thanks to all our relatives and friends, to the Hooker Ladies Aid and the U-Go-I-Go Club who assisted us at the time of the death and funeral of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, and to all who expressed sympathy with cards, memorials, flowers, food and other acts of kindness.
