MAX WILLIAM GORS

Max William Gors eldest son of Max A. Gors of Viborg, S. D., was born at the home near Viborg on Oct. 17, 1888. Here he grew to young manhood. On Dec. 22, 1910, at the age of 22 he was married to Marie Henrietta Wrage, eldest daughter of Julius Wrage of Hooker, S. D. To this union three daughters were born, Mildred Eunice, Wilma Eileen and Beulah Yvonne, all of whom are at home.

He was taken sick on Dec. 29, 1936. He was rushed to the McKennan hospital in Sioux Falls, where all that human hands could do for him was done, but it was not to be, he passed away at 12:30 Friday night, Jan. 2, 1937, at the age of 48 years, 2 months, and 15 days.

He joined the Methodist church at Parker in 1926, of which he was a faithful member.

The deceased was preceded in death by his mother, Jan. 6, 1901, and two sisters. Besides his wife and three daughters he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gors; one sister and four brothers, to mourn his passing.

The sister is Mrs. F. B. Hollmann of Hartford, S. D.; the brothers are, Johnnie of Hooker, S. D.; Clarence of Sioux Falls, S. D.; Floyd of Viborg, S. D., and Earl of Bremerton, Wash., besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church of Hurley with Rev. Minish of Parker in charge, who was assisted by Rev. Bunton of Hurley. A quartet composed of Sheridan Monk, Loren Stoddard, Vernon Gotthelf, and George Pfieffer sang, "There Will Be No Night There," "Sometime We'll Understand," and "Now the Day is Over." Interment was in the cemetery at Hurley. Pall bearers were Einer Anderson, Earl Wirt, Curtiss Blundell, Harley Eggleston, Sam Bundell, and Clarence Clikeman. Blessed by his memory.
