Called Home.

Many of our readers will be pained to learn of the death of Mrs. C. J. Aalborg which occurred at her home north of town last Tuesday morning. She has been ailing for some time but her death was a shock to the whole community. Mrs. Aalborg was one of the early settlers of Turner county, coming here about thirty years ago. She was about 61 years of age and was surrounded by a family of six sons and two daughters besides her husband, who survives her. The funeral took place today from the home and an able sermon was preached in the M. E. church. The remains were laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery and were escorted by a large number of friends and relatives to the last resting place. We expect to give a more extended obituary next week.
