Dean Korslund

Dean Lee Korslund was born September 18, 1960 in Yankton to Dale and Alma (Hansen) Korslund. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith. He grew up in the Irene area and attended Sletten School until it closed. He graduated from Irene High School in 1978.

He attended Mitchell Vo Tech and was a power lineman for two years. He worked as a cable technician for the past 22 years and was currently employed with PraireWave Cable Television.

Dean married Kelly Johnson June 22, 1980 in Irene. Three children were born to this union.

Dean was a loving, patient, quiet, friendly, hardworking person. He enjoyed the outdoors. He loved to fish. He would take the canoe and enjoy the scenery and the quiet time, catch some fish, throw them back and go home to his family. In the fall, he liked the pheasant-hunting season. Dean enjoyed a cruise on his motorcycle, never going too far from home. He was interested in history of families, towns and state, history of his guns, and of motorcycles. Dean enjoyed family gatherings. He had faith in God. Dean was a loving husband, father, son, brother and friend and a devoted employee at his job.

Dean, 42, of Vermillion died Thursday July 20, 2003 near Vermillion as a result of a motorcycle accident.

Funeral services were held July 14, 2003 at Calvary Lutheran Church in Irene with burial in the Meldal Cemetery, rural Irene.

He is survived by his wife Kelly of Vermillion, two sons David and James and a daughter Tracy all of Vermillion, a brother Dennis of Watertown and a sister Kathy Korslund Schenk of Irene, his mother-in-law Becky Craig of Belle Fourche, and many other relatives and friends.

Dean was preceded in death by his grandparents, his father-in-law and his step father-in-law.

He will be greatly missed by all!
