MRS. A. L. NELSON IS LAID TO REST

Funeral Services Tuesday—Burial is Made at Baptist Cemetery

Funeral services for Mrs. A. L. Nelson, well known resident of Viborg, who passed on at her home here Saturday following a lingering illness, were held Tuesday at the home and the Baptist church. Rev. John Jensen of Centerville preached the funeral sermon, assisted by Rev. W. E. Prewitt. Musical numbers were sung by Rev. Prewitt and a male quartet.

A host of friends and relatives attended and final committment was made at the Baptist cemetery. The Enterprise joins with those who mourn in extending sympathy to the husband and relatives who mourn the passing of this gentle, lovable and kind Christian woman.

Mrs. A. L. Nelson was born in Racine, Wisconsin, November 13, 1872. In the spring of 1873 she came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Larson to South Dakota. They homesteaded three miles southeast of Viborg, here Mrs. Nelson spent her happy child hood days.

When only nine years old, Mrs. Nelson was converted, baptized and united with the Daneville Baptist church. In 1890 she moved with her parents to Centerville where she united with the First Baptist church of that place. Mrs. Nelson spent eighteen years in Centerville, during that time she cared for her parents until they passed on before her.

On November 17th, 1908, she was united in marriage to Mr. A. L. Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson spent first one year in Hurley, S. D., after which they moved on the farm Southeast of Viborg, where they lived for eleven years. In the spring of 1921 they rented their farm out and moved to Viborg where they have made their home ever since.

Mrs. Nelson had been suffering from diebetes for some three years, but had only been bedfast for two months. She passed peacefully away in her home March 4th. With her husband and two nurses, Miss Anderson and Miss Marcussen, at her side.

Mrs. Nelson was as long as she was able very active in church work. She has always been held in high esteem in the community where she has lived. Her parents and three brothers has gone on before her. She leaves to mourn: her husband, and several distant relatives beside a host of friends.

We will miss her in her always so guest-free home, in the church both in Centerville and Viborg, and we shall miss her wholesome Christian influence in the community as a whole. May God bless her memory and comfort those who are bowed in sorrow.—Contributed.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to take this means of expressing our sincere appreciation to our many friends in Centerville, Viborg and vicinity for their many acts of kindness, words of sympathy and for the beautiful floral offerings during the recent illness and passing of our dear wife and aunt.
