

DANGEL, Louis P.

May 19, 1914
Salem Township
July 18, 1990
Yankton

Viborg Enterprise -
August 2, 1990

Mass Held For Louis P. Dangel

Funeral Mass was held Saturday, July 21st, 1990 at 10:00 a.m., at St. Boniface Catholic Church, Idylwilde, rural Freeman, S. D., with the Fr. Dennis Benda conducting the Mass. Pallbearers were Mark Heinlein, Todd Schnider, Cory Schnider, Travis Dangel, Brian Wollman, Jeremy Dangel, Michael Dangel and Daniel Dangel. He was buried in the Church Cemetery.

Louis P. Dangel, age 76 of rural Viborg, South Dakota died on Wednesday, July 18th, 1990 at Sacred Heart Hospital at Yankton. He was born May 19, 1914 on the family farm in Salem Township in Turner County, to Anna and Louis Dangel Sr.

He married Agnes Georgeson on June 17, 1942 at St. Boniface Catholic Church. Agnes passed away on January 4, 1980.

Louis farmed in Turner County all of his life and enjoyed being with his family, children and friends. He enjoyed doing for others and visiting people in nursing homes. He also looked forward to hunters coming from out-of-state for the hunting season.

He is survived by five daughters: Mrs. Dennis (Karon) Barnhouse of Salem, S. D., Mrs. Marlo (Barbara) Schnider of Volin, S. D., Mrs. Ruben (Phyllis) Wollman of Yankton, S. D., Mrs. Gene (Kathy) Larsen of Viborg, S. D., and Mrs. Larry (Mary) Wallace of Viborg, S. D., Four sons: Philip of Volin, S. D., Neil of Volin, S. D., Paul of Viborg, S. D., and Daniel of Irene, S. D., thirty-three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; six sisters: Theresa Anderson of Viborg, S. D., Anna Goettertz of Sioux City, Iowa, Martha Goettertz of Freeman, S. D., Rose Massey Klimisch of Yankton, S. D., Florence Weier of Yankton, S. D., and Magdalen Christensen of Viborg, S. D., two brothers, Raymond Dangel of Viborg, S. D., and James Dangel of Freeman, S. D.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, one grandson and one sister.