HURLEY WOMAN MEETS DEATH IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Andy Larsen, 60, was killed instantly in a two-car accident 1 mile south of Marion on July 10, 1975. Adina Pawlovich, her granddaughter from Wahpeton, N. D., was with her. Adina was taken to Sioux Valley Hospital by the Marion ambulance. She suffered a fractured arm and fractured skull, but was able to be released on the following Monday.

Funeral services were held at the Harmony Presbyterian Church in Hurley on Monday, July 14, 1975, for Mabel Maxine Larsen, who was killed in a two-car accident on July 10, 1975. Rev. Orrin H. Moore officiated. Maurice Rundell, a classmate, sang "How Great Thou Art" and "My Faith Looks Up To Thee". Organist was Mrs. Virgil Christensen. Pallbearers were: John Zeiszler, Duane Haase, Jim Georgeson and Dave Pawlovich, son-in-laws, and Russell Georgeson and Corney Wedell, neighbors. Ushers were: Boyd Benson, Ray Almond, and Gene Bright. She was laid to rest in the Hurley Cemetery.

Mabel Maxine Elliott was born December 12, 1914, at Hurley to Raymond F. and Vera Elliott. She graduated from Hurley High School in 1933.

She was united in marriage to Andreas Larsen on January 3, 1934, at Hurley. They have spent their entire married life in Turner County. This union was blessed with six children: Lavonne—Mrs. John Zeissler, Pierre, S. D.; Roger, Hurley; Miriam—Mrs. Duane Haase, Parker, S. D.; Avis—Mrs. Jim Georgeson, Turkey Ridge; Martin, Viborg; and Lynnett—Mrs. Dave Pawlovich, Whapeton, N. D. Survivors include the widower and children; 4 son-in-laws; 2 daughter-in-laws; 14 grandchildren; her father, Raymond F.; two sisters, Lucille Schaefer, and Beryle, Mrs. Richard Koller of Sioux Falls; and 1 brother, Albert Elliott of Los Angeles, Calif.

She was preceded in death by 1 grandchild, her mother, and 1 brother.

She will be clearly remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother. Blessed be her memory.
