For a teacher to instruct the younger generation and pass his influence on so that the students will make something of themselves is one of the most valuable assets that America has.

The teacher is a counselor and a molder of young minds and spirits. And his influence may be carried as far as two or three generations. This is what makes the teacher so much of an asset to the American way of life. The caliber of these individuals has been such that America has been kept strong, and the Viborg High School teachers have done their part.

As the sophomores reach their half-way goal in high school, they meet many new opportunities along the way. To begin the year, the sophomores built a float for the Homecoming activities. Hosting the Sweetheart Ball was their big happening of the year. For this event, the sophomores obtained the band, "The Wizards" to make the night complete.

As the freshmen take on their first year at V. H. S., they are only at the beginning of their long climb toward the future. To start their year, the freshmen organized a large bonfire for the pep rally and built a float, in which they took first place. With all these activities taking place, the climb for these freshmen will not be so hard.

VIKINGS SET 6 AND 1 RECORD

The Viborg Vikings came back with a great season after a first game loss to the Menno Wolves. The boys had more than just a winning season this year. They experienced the game. They blocked, tackled, and carried the ball.

Under the head coaching of Lee Glood and assisted by John Schroeder, the Vikings defeated such bitter rivals as the Irene Cardinals and Jefferson Blackhawks, and they placed second in the Tri-Valley Conference.

This year's Seniors were strong both in number and in leadership. Our captain for the year was Gene Ludens. With most of the team made up of Seniors, the football team achieved a record of six wins and one loss, and this record will be hard to beat.

The enthusiasm behind the team is a big part of the game. The cheerleaders, along with the fans stood behind the team in everything they did and everyone is very proud of the Vikings this year.

The team was led by six seniors who will be missed by teammates and by fans alike, for there is a "loss of leadership."
