BRODLAND, Inger Gonille (Mosby)

January 12, 1873
Chicago, Illinois
April 15, 1936
Nielsville, Minnesota

Viborg Enterprise - April 29, 1936

MRS. O. H. BRODLAND

Mrs. O. H Brodland, nee Inger Gonille Mosby, wife of Rev. O. H. Brodland, having been in poor health for some time, passed away at her home in Nielsvile, Minn., April 15.

Born June 12, 1873 in Chicago, Ill. Later moved to Wisconsin with her parents, and resided there until they moved to Hutchinson county, South Dakota. She lived with her parents most of the time until Sept. 4, 1895 when she was married to O. H Brodland, then a theological student at St. Paul, Minn. Shortly after they moved to Nielsville, Minn., having accepted a call from two congregations. There they lived for fourteen years when they received a call (in 1911) to serve Salem, James River, Norway and Bethany congregations not far from Viborg. Another fourteen years passed and they again received a call from the congregations (now numbering five) near Nielsville, Minn. That was in nineteen twenty_five; and there they lived until the time of her death.

She leaves to mourn her death, her husband, three sons, Henry and Joseph of Menno, S .Dak., George of Freeman, S. Dak ; and four daughters, Tilda (Mrs. Hans Bjornstad) and Dora of Nielsville, and Myrtle and Esther of Freeman; also a twin brother, Hans Mosby of Freeman, and six grandchildren. Two children preceeded her in death, Arthur (26) and an infant son.

Funeral services were held at Nielsville Friday, April 17 and at Salem church near Freeman, April 21, Rev. J. M. Runestad officiating at the latter place. The following also spoke: Pres. C. M. Granskov of Augustana College, Rev. Heuer, Rev. J. M. Johnson, Rev. Leverson, Rev. O. M. Odland, and Rev. Smeby. Each of the tree congregations furnished some music; and the Reverends Runestad and Smeby sang solos.

She lived and died in the Lord. Blessed be her memory