BOE, Hazel (Mattison)

October 2, 1906
Charles Mix County, South Dakota
July 23, 1985
Yankton

Viborg Enterprise - August 1, 1985

Last Rites Held For Hazel Boe, 78

The funeral for Hazel Boe, 78, Yankton, was at 2:00 p.m., Friday in Trinity Lutheran Church, Yankton, with the Rev. James K. Schwartz officiating. Burial was in the Garden of Memories.

She was born October 2, 1906, in Charles Mix County to Jesse and Anna (Schneider) Mattison, and died Tuesday morning, July 23, 1985 in Sacred Heart Hospital.

She grew up in Yankton, and attended Yankton Public Schools including Yankton High school three years prior to her marriage to Harry Boe September 17, 1925, in Yankton. They farmed in rural Irene. They moved to Yankton in 1979.

Survivors are her husband, Harry; two sons and their wives, Robert and Ardis Boe, Viborg; and Donald R. and Jane, Union City, Tenn.; two daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle (Betty) Haffner, Volin, and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin (Doris) Christensen, Grayland, Wash.; a sister, Olive Nett, Sheboygan Falls, Wis.; 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

———