Obituary

Mrs. Marie Kjerstine Kaarup died at her home in Hooker Thanksgiving day, Nov. 26th, after one day sickness. The funeral took place last Monday. The sermon was delivered at the Bethania Lutheran church in Viborg, Rev. Th. N. Jersild officiating.

Although the Kaarup family has lived in this community only a few years, a great number of people attended the funeral, bringing the bereaved their sympathy. This was especially shown by the large and beautiful floral offerings.

She had endeared herself especially to the East Swan Lake Lutheran congregation of which she, her husband and children are members. She was borne in Denmark January 26th, 1851, and married to William Kaarup November 6th, 1874.

In their happy wedlock they were blessed with seven children, of which the oldest child, Ane Sophia Kaarup died some years ago.

Her husband, William Kaarup and their children, Ane Marie, Laurids Anton, Hans, Karoline Wilhelmine, Martin and Kjerstine Kaarup survive her.

Blessed be Mrs. William Kaarup's memory.
