She attended grade school at District 41, Turner County; High School at Parker and College at Springfield and Madison, South Dakota. She taught rural schools in Turner County for a number of years.

She married Leonard Hansen on Sept. 1, 1958. They farmed west of Viborg until 1970, when they moved to Viborg.

She was a member of Spring Valley Lutheran Church. As long as she was able, she was active in the ALCW. The children of the church were of special interest to Mae; she showed a concern and love for all and spent many years teaching Sunday School.
